

Build Your Future After University

Inclusion programs for refugee graduates

Have you been admitted to Italy through a UNICORE scholarship?
Are you a refugee or holder of subsidiary protection who has completed (or is about to complete) university studies?

The UNHCR – UN Refugee Agency – is managing some programs that can support you in the transition into the Italian job market and full inclusion in Italian society.

With programs in partnership with universities, municipalities, companies, and NGOs, you can access real opportunities to build a stable and empowered life in Italy.
